Respected friends -

Your bill and fractional currency purchased for me at S. A. & H. Avey's sale on the 7th inst just rec'd.

We closed please find my check for $16.<sup>65</sup> to pay bill after deducting $2.<sup>10</sup> for pieces returned however sent on approval - Manucript and re-gummed and re-billed

I have kept one of 1198 at .45¢ and return the other - If this is not satisfactory I can return the other and you can send the .45¢
paid for it to me -

What would be the charge for pricing the three leaves of United States Fractional currency?

Yours truly, J. H. Green

Dear Friends,

Your letter of the 7th with enclosures on approval received -

I have with return all for reasons as follows.
No. 3 too much cut in - No 20 & No. 20 not so good as I want - have one of No. 20 perforations cut off on two sides - The price of No. 85 too high for one so badly cut - and Nos 88 answer to your description of No. 87 which I have just like yours, the plate I not being small enough to answer description of No. 88.

I am now going over my fractional currency and numbering the pieces - find I still want a few pieces - No. 85 is returned as you wish notice on account of price & condition.

Yours truly
J. C. Green

J. H. & A. Chapman -

Esteemed friends -

On looking over some of my N.S. 72 actual currency <sup>yesterday</sup> found I had made a mistake in No. 75 of your list, overlooking the figures A 265 on back when there should be no letters or figures

This gives me 2 pieces of No. 76 both uncirculated - very fine - Have you No. 75 uncirculated & very fine? and if so would you be willing to exchange it, on even terms <sup>one of</sup> for my No. 76, inasmuch as no exchange for one of my pieces No. 86 (I think) on account of its not being as good as expected; on a former transaction?

Could send my piece in approval you to do the same.

I did I need No. 102 - may others -

Yours very truly

J. C. Green

The Specimen of No. 75 Fractional Currency, enclosed in your letter of yesterday for exchange has engraved signatures of Teddy and Spenser (as I examine it) instead of autograph signatures as called for in your price list -

My specimen of No. 76 has autograph signatures -

If you have No. 75 Auto. signatures
I should <sup>like</sup> to make the exchange or if the one sent me in your judgement has Auto. signatures I would be pleased to keep it - Want Auto.
Sigs. as called for - Have you No. 63 and No. 98 in fine unused condition?

Yours truly

S. N. & H. Chapman -

Esteemed Friends,

Yours of yesterday rec<sup>d</sup> and I herewith return the specimen sent in your letter of the 19th - also enclose No. 76 in exchange for your No.
75 just rec<sup>d</sup>

Enclosed please find $3. <sup>50</sup> to pay you for Nos. 63 and 98 which settles our account - Please acknowledge Receipt of enclosures -

Thanks for the exchange -

Yours truly

I neglected to ask your lowest price for No. 75 (in your letter of the 19th.) I will be glad to sign it, not in your "price list" - (I should think would be No. 75a) returned -

S. D. V. N. Chapman -

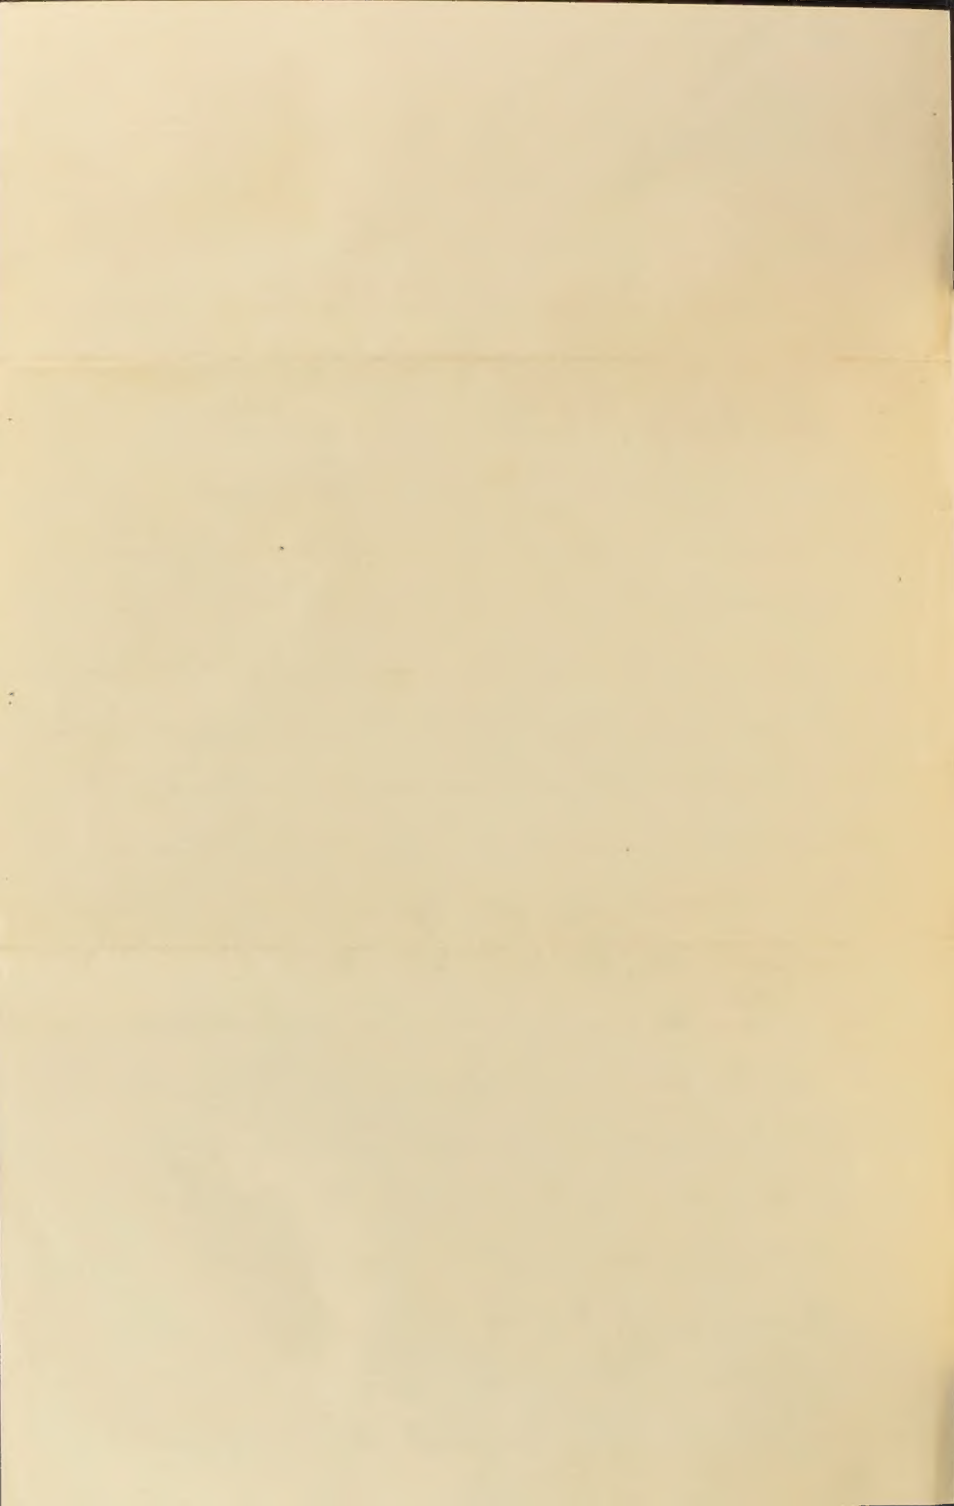

Respected friend -

I did not offer any price for
no. 75a - Justice, <sup>dated</sup> engraved sig. no letters or figures, as you intimate in your letter of even date, but asked your lowest price.

The price named $3.<sup>00</sup> appears too high as it is not so valuable in my opinion as 75 with auto. sig. But if you will accept $2.<sup>00</sup> and no. 14, .50 cent, both of which I enclose, in full for the price I will Keep the Justice engraved sig. no. 75a, no letters or figures sign in your letter of even date - Your price for no. 14 is $1.<sup>50</sup> as your price list - I paid in your Feb. 15th sale of it a piece, no. 912 like the one here except slight stain on reverse sold for $1.50
